

The Source for Beautiful, Unusual, and Exotic Plants

Orange Batface Cuphea

Cuphea salvadorensis

A rare orange flowered Cuphea from Southern Mexico and El Salvador.

Bright orange-red, 1-1/2" long, green tipped tubular blooms with a pair of small upright petals are produced from summer to fall. This is a mounding shrub-like perennial.

In Hawaii a unique Christmas lei is sometimes made

- Home
- New Plants
- Butterfly Plants
- Hummingbird Plants
- Fragrant Plants
- Tropicals
- Vines & Climbers
- Perennials
- Shrubs & Trees
- Indoor Plants
- Fruits & Herbs
- Succulents & Cacti
- Bonsai Plants
- Common Names
- Botanical Names
- Gift Certificates
- Ordering FAQ's
- Customer Service
- Links
- [Gardening &
Horticulture Information](#)
- Search
- View Cart

from the flowers. Much loved by Hummingbirds.
Grows to 3-5'H x 3-5'W.

Over 100 New Plants for 2009!

We Deliver Quality:

From

Our

Greenhouses

to Your Doorstep

April 13, 2009.